

Oak Tree Stories – Artwork Submission Terms

1. Permission to Use Artwork

By submitting artwork (including by a child or on a child's behalf), you grant Oak Tree Stories permission to share, repost, and use the artwork for promotional purposes across our platforms (including Instagram, website, newsletters, and other brand communication). This includes minor edits such as cropping or resizing, while keeping the artwork intact.

2. Credit & Shout-Outs

Wherever possible, we will credit the artist using the name and details provided at the time of submission. However, we do not guarantee a shout-out or feature within a specific timeline, as selections depend on our editorial calendar and volume of submissions.

3. Original Work Only

Submitted artwork must be original and created by the child. By submitting, you confirm that the artwork does not copy or closely resemble copyrighted material, characters, or artworks owned by others.

4. No Compensation

Artwork submissions are voluntary. No monetary compensation will be provided for selected or shared artwork.

5. Right to Decline or Remove

Oak Tree Stories reserves the right to decline, postpone, or remove any artwork from our platforms at our discretion, including if it no longer aligns with our content or brand values.
